

Do not change the current rules. I value diversity of ownership, and opinion. A multiplicity of voices is democratic. Favouring the conglomeration of large companies because they claim hard times is allowing piracy of public resource - the radiomagnetic spectrum. Your unwillingness to hold proper public hearings is shameful